THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND ITS WORK

ALTHOUGH the Woman's Auxiliary to the John H. Stratford Hospital is only a little over three years old, a great deal has been accomplished. In June, 1903, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Frank Cockshutt; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. John Hopa and Mrs. R. S. Schell; Secretary, Mrs. T. H. Whitehead; Treasurer, Mrs. Jeffrey Hale. The Executive Committee: Mrs. Julius Waterous, Mrs. Church'll Livingston, Miss J. L. Sutherland and Officers.

During their offciate they purchased an ambulance, costing $410.00, for the use of the Contagious Disease Hospital, and a laundry was erected and equipped with best steam plant at a cost of $2548.85. Brantford ladies donated a good deal of linen and china and a sitting room was furnished for the nurses. The election of officers took place on June and, 1903, and resulted in the following: President, Mrs. T. H. Denton; 1st Vice President, Mrs. W. C. Livingston; and Vice-President, Mrs. Julius Waterous; Treasurer, Mrs. Geo. Watt; Secretary, Miss J. L. Sutherland. A Committee of 12 ladies was appointed to visit the hospital during the year and provide the patients with flowers, magazines, fruits and jellies. Money has been raised in the following ways: From Parada, held in June, 1905; from executive Amalgamated Shops Excursions, 1905-6; from Women's Musical Club; from Rummage Sale, held in October, 1905; carnival at Waterloo Street rink; Hospital Sunday held in the churches, June, 1906; base-ball games and fares on the cars. An elevator was installed in the hospital at a cost of $1556.00, the City Council giving $778.00.

A Nurses' Home Necessary

A PRINCIPAL factor in connection with all well organized hospitals is a training school and separate home for nurses. Young women in this institution enter on a three-year term. One feature which has militated more than any other against the John H. Stratford hospital has been want of sleeping accommodation for the nursing staff, which has necessarily restricted the number of nurses out of all proportion to the growth of the hospital. To-day there is no greater number than existed in the early stages of the institution, when its bed capacity was 35. At the present moment, with the addition of the Isolation hospital, the bed capacity is 80.

To get best results, nurses must be educated in the home training school, not only in the high art of nursing, cooking, massage, general efficiency and other factors that go to make up a reliable, useful woman for hospital work, as well as outside nursing in the homes of our citizens at a moderate charge, while it is imperative there should be a relay at all times to draw from in case of epidemic or serious accident. This is a cardinal rule in all well-equipped hospitals.

To the doctor in attendance on the patient a trusty nurse is simply invaluable—to the patient, absolutely indispensable, while it is conceded by the profession that two-thirds of all the recoveries, especially in typhoid, come from good day and night nursing and best sanitary surroundings. The history of the nurses' splendid work should be more largely written and more largely studied in every home.

It is for a Nurses' Home that the W. H. A. of the John H. Stratford hospital is now working and that the Poster Show is being held. The object is a very worthy one, and it is not surprising that it is being heartily supported by all classes of Brantford's citizens.

DAIRY BOOTH

The dairy booth is fashioned after a Swiss model, and with its thatched roof, and lawn-like surroundings, to say nothing of its bevy of pretty girls in Swiss dairy maid attire, with their attendant farm hands or "help," all presided over by a capable house-wife, makes one of the most attractive booths in the Poster Show. Here will be found all forms of dairy produce—butter, eggs, milk, cream, buttermilk, cheese, etc.—all of the best, besides all manner of choice con. try delicacies—pies, "like mother used to make," home-made bread and rolls, gingerbread cookies, doughnuts, poultry, pork and beans, cider, pickles, and many other tempting viands. In addition to all this they have a very fine Jersey calf and an "elegant" pig, which will be given to the one holding the lucky number. The celebrated "Autograph Quilt" containing nearly 200 names, will also be on exhibition in this booth.

INDIAN BOOTH

The Indian Booth represents an encampment of Indians, with one wigwam and a campfire, over which a kettle is hung. In the back ground is the rough shelter, so often found in the much-frequented camping grounds. In this case the shelter is used for the display and sale of Indian baskets, moccasins, headwork and birch bark. In the wigwams, one may see, for a small admission fee, a good representation of the Hospital Hill, many years ago, before the settlement of the white man. At the back of the booth a small space has been reserved where white boys and girls may compete at the Indian pastime of shooting with bow and arrows. The entrance to this is at the side of the booth.

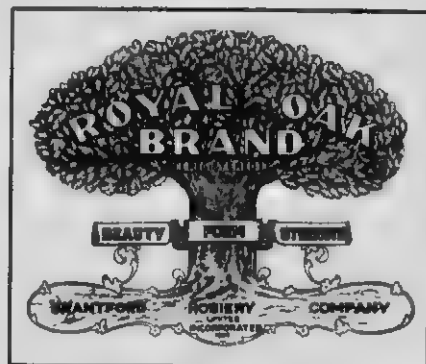

One of the chief attractions at this camp is a large candle (made from the fat of wild (?) animals), which will be burning each evening to light the booth. This candle will be on exhibition for two weeks in a store window, so that all who so desire may have an opportunity to guess how long it will burn, and register their votes. A blanket has been donated as a prize for the one guessing nearest.

RESOLVE

To keep my health
To do my work
To live
To see to it I grow and gain and give,
Never to look behind me for an hour,
To wait in weakness, and to walk in power;
But always fronting onward to the light,
Always and always facing toward the right,
Robbed, starved, defeated, fallen wide stray
On, with what strength I have,
Back to the way.

We have properties of all kinds for sale in all parts of Canada, and through our correspondents and connections can buy or sell for you in any part of Canada or the United States. We make a specialty of selling houses and lots on the instalment plan, by which a property may be secured by paying a small amount down and the balance in monthly payments. It is better to buy a house than to be a tenant all your life.

If you have any wants in our line do not fail to consult us; we can supply them if anyone can.

POSSIBLY the best known business of its kind, not only in Brantford, but throughout the Province, is that owned and managed by Hunt & Colter. The Livery Branch, for years their mainstay, was established in 1872, and since then has been steadily improving and is now up-to-date in every particular. Their carriages, made by the best manufacturers of the day, turned out with appointments to correspond, always bring satisfaction. In connection they have the largest storehouse in the city, and so far have successfully catered to the T. H. & B. Railway as their forwarding agents with satisfaction to all customers. A necessity for such a business is, of course, a farm.

The Pine Grove Stock Farm, a mile and a half from the city, has turned out some of the most promising trotters and show horses in the province, as may be seen by the accompanying cuts. Any one wishing prompt and courteous attention will be received at their headquarters, 155-157 Dalhousie Street, or by

OUR ASSISTANT MANAGER

Some Remarks By Our Assistant Manager

"PEOPLE get so unreasonable when they grow up. Here I have to eat up all my meat at dinner before I can have Benson's Corn Starch Pudding, when I'd just as leave make my whole dinner off that. But at breakfast they give me Benson's Prepared Corn first. I used to get so tired of porridge, you see, and Benson's Prepared Corn is ever so much better than porridge for little folks, and for big folks, too. Now, Why is it I can't have pudding first at dinner, when it's made of just the same good Benson's Prepared Corn that they are perfectly willing I should have first at breakfast? I bet when I grow up and have a little boy of my own he can have Benson's Prepared Corn eleven times a day, with currant jelly on it."

The Assistant Manager is partly correct in his statement. Benson's Prepared Corn is a welcome change from the usual porridge and superior in nourishment to the so-called "fad foods" at the morning meal; and the ease with which it may be quickly prepared in many palatable ways, no less than the uniform certainty of results with it in cookery, make it the mainstay of the housewife as a basis for a long list of delicious desserts. Your grocer will supply you, and will refund your money if for any reason you find your expectations not realized by the perfect flavor and high culinary quality of

Men and Women of Canada

Canadian Illustrated Biographical Directories.
Agricultural, Commercial, Manufactural, Professional, Historical.

T. A. LINSOTT, D. B., F. R. C. L., Editor.

Under this general title, the Linscott Publishing Company, Brantford, Canada, are commencing a most extensive publishing enterprise.

An Illustrated Biographical Directory, covering Canada, making each county complete in itself, and for the most part devoting a volume to a county. The work will give the name, occupation and addresses of all the leading people, including every merchant, manufacturer, professional man and woman and farmer in the country. To subscribers a biography and a handsome portrait will be given in addition.

The work will be profusely illustrated with steel plates, hand printed photogravures, and re-etched half-tones. The first volume is to be devoted to Brantford and the County of Brant. An alphabetically-arranged Directory and Illustrated Biography, it will be of priceless value at the present, and its value will increase with years. The work will be printed on coated paper, handsomely bound, and is expected to be the best specimen of book making ever manufactured in Canada.
